Child Marriage Case Study

Child's Name: Kranti, Maharashtra

Names have been changed

Child's age is 15 years

Kranti is a 15 year old girl studying in class 9, She did not go to school from the last eight days. We think? What was the reason, She didn't go to school? After discussion with the community she was wearing a green chuda and the wedding date was four days later. One brother and father was addict mother was He was taking care of the family alone so her mother arranged her marriage but she didn't want to get married now she begged her parents at school but they didn't listen to her she was also shoulder ring all the burdens because her father was addicted to alcohol he was drinking everywhere and her mother was doing all the preparations for the wedding. She didn't know who to ask. The girl's mother decided to help herself. She listen Janseva Gramin Vikas Va Shikshan Pratishthan was working on child marriage and she attend an awareness program in the school in which they informed that children between the age of zero to eighteen years are in any kind of trouble, they can approach the staff of Janseva Pratishthan and tell their problem like child marriage, child labor, child abuse and any other problem. If the children are facing Janseva Pratishthan helps the children to solve their problems where she got the information from the staff of Janseva Pratishthan in school she immediately contacted the staff of Janseva Pratishthan and asked for help that she doesn't want to get married she wants to complete her education As per the help requested by the girls the girl immediately The staff of Janseva Pratishthan immediately informed the police station and they also informed the child protection cell and with the help of the district women and child development office and the child protection cell they reached the police station and informed the police about everything and along with the police they reached the marriage venue and went there and informed the girl's mother. Made and asked to appear before the child welfare committee and explained to the mother how this child marriage is wrong and what are its consequences and what are the provisions of the Prevention of Child Marriage Act 2006 and what are the punishments for child marriage. The girl was also very angry. On the contrary, she asked a simple question, she said that because a girl from our village has run away, we are afraid that she will also run away and we are doing this marriage so that nothing happens that will bring us into disrepute. If our daughter runs away, are you responsible for it? If she gives her life, if you are responsible, she explained to her that you will not give anything to the girl and nothing bad will happen to her. There was an example in the village that your daughter will act like that or run away like that. Don't Do Doubts Doubts came in your mind and you arranged the marriage of a girl but this will not make your own daughter's future bright. If she completes her education, her future will be bright and if she gets married after eighteen years, she will not have any health problems. After the age of 18, she would have understood the responsibility and she would have fully developed physically. Presently the age of the girl is fifteen years and the girl is going to school she is completing her education and her child marriage was annulled on her wedding day she is living happily now.

Child marriage free success stories

Ms. Rudrakshi Vijay Jadhav is a resident of Malwada village of Mahur block in Nanded District and she is 16 years old and studying in 10th standard. The girl's parents were secretly planning her marriage. Janaseva has working in this village and Shama is received this message received from one girl. Then she visited her family to verify the incident and got to know the detailed information, many things were revealed in it.

Daughter Ms. Rudrakshi Vijay Jadhav is studying in class 10 and is just 16 years old. The girl's father work as a labour. He had a heart attack, so there is a fear in his mind that if I have got another heart attack and dies, what will happen to my family behind him. So, he thought that it would be better if his daughter got married before his eyes. So, he had taken a firm decision to give his daughter for his sister's son i.e. his nephew. As his sister is also suffering from terminal illness, his last wish is to get his son married and see him happy. So, they tried to do this marriage in a secret manner. But their efforts were thwarted. The workers of Janaseva Gramin Vikas va Shikshan Pratishtan met the parents of Asha and Anganwadi worker of the village, at the right time and established a friendly relationship with them. And if a girl is married off before 18, then it is a crime according to the law, for which everyone in the family can be jailed and also have to pay a fine in the form of money. So, you gave them full information that you cannot arrange this marriage. And the eyes of that family were also opened when the girl was strictly warned not to marry unless the age of the girl was 18 years and the boy was 21 years of marriage.

In this way, this marriage conspiracy was successfully foiled. At this time, information was given to the village child protection committee
